CABARET PRODUCTION NOTES

CABARET is one of the most popular and most honored musicals of the century. It opened in New York November, 1966 and played for nearly three years until 1969, for a total of 1166 performances. Its Broadway triumph was repeated on tour throughout the United States and in London. The original production won seventeen distinguished awards including the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award, the Outer Critics' Circle Award, and the Tony Award, all for being the season's best musical.

CABARET is based on the true-life observations of Christopher Isherwood who, in his early youth, had gone to Berlin to take his first steps toward becoming the brilliant author that he turned into in later years. He put the people he encountered in Berlin in the years 1929-1932 into a book he called Goodbye to Berlin (later re-titled The Berlin Stories).

One of these stories, entitled "Sally Bowles", caught the attention of the playwright John van Druten who adapted it as a play titled I Am A Camera. The idea of turning the material into a musical began with playwright Joe Masteroff who took it to producer-director Harold Prince who, in turn, recommended the project to the song-writers, Kander and Ebb. The rest, of course, is history.

CABARET, in effect, presents a montage of the decadence of Berlin in the late twenties when the people tried to ignore the evil rising on the horizon. Its structure is essentially Brechtian, in that it employs all the varied theatrical arts to express the social behavior of a group of people teetering on the edge of disaster. The Kit Kat Klub represents the glittering, heartless, vulgar world of forced pleasure inhabited by brash show-girls, bargirls, a "drag" orchestra - all presided over by the mocking, grinning Master of Ceremonies who struts forth to welcome us into his world of macabre gaiety. The story sequences, on the other hand, show us a contrasting vision - the destruction of personal lives and values by the growing menace of Nazi power.

Aid To Speech Therapy of Emerson College

Through the cooperation of the Musical Theatre Society of Emerson College, the Friday Evening Performance has been traditionally "Benefit Evening" for Aid to Speech Therapy of Emerson College.

The funds raised through the sale of ads for the Playbook and the tickets go toward furthering the work of this group, which helps support the Robins Speech and Hearing Center and the Thayer-Lindsley Parent Centered Nursery for Pre-School Deaf Children and also awards annually The Joy E. McKinley Scholarship to a deserving Emerson student in the field of Speech and Hearing.

C A B A R E T

We thank you for supporting the Musical Theatre Society's production of CABARET.

Why?

Because within such activities lies the strength of Emerson's image.

Consider also our organization, the Emerson College Forensic Society.....

From 1966-1970, we have won 150 awards in intercollegiate competition.

We have defeated all the names -- Harvard, Princeton, Michigan, Stanford, and Oxford.

And, Presently hold the New England and Eastern States Championships! How about that?

All Emerson Students have the opportunity to participate in debate and other extra-curricular speech activities. The coaches are friendly, too. So join! Why not, the 1970-1971 season will be exciting!!

Atlantis Waterbeds East

Atlantis now offers its most popular sizes—King, Queen, Full and Twin size beds—in your choice of two quality models. Our standard extra thick 24-mil mattress uses the Roberts 1010-AF double-lock valve and is backed by a manufacturer's lifetime guarantee. We also carry a 20-mil mattress incorporating separate filling and draining systems and a nonmetallic air bleeder valve.

Other sizes include rectangular beds from crib size to 13' by 15', round beds in 6½', 7', 8', 9' and 10' diameters, and rectangular or round water pillows.

If you have a bed that leaks, bring it in and Atlantis will sell you one that won't at 15% off our regular prices.
